THUNDER BLAST MAN

1. FOREWORD

Tonight the whole Chiateng City and its citizens are very high in various recreational activities that are carried in commemoration of its centennial. Just when a crowd of VIPs gathering in the Mayor's residence were raising their glasses to toast Chiateng City, a mysterious stranger broke into the house from the window and quickly flew away with the captured Mayor's daughter, Rose. Very quickly several explosions broke out successively on the street and the whole city was soon in fire.

Do you think that these people, now all at their wits' end, could do nothing but wait and be played by the jerk or some miracle would happen and the people were rescued?

2. INSTRUCTION OF OPERATION

This is a one-person game.

(1) "Cross" button :

Left, right (button) ----- Control the movement of the leading role. Down -------- Squat down.

(2) Button B : Firing (arms)

(3) Button A : Bounding !

(4) START Button : Game stars ! Game halts !

3. METHOD OF PLAYING THE GAME

(1) There are totally five passes in this game and each pass is composed of two side passes. All the passes are shown on the map page and each can be selected from them. After having passed through two passes, the leading role has to wage a life-and-death battle with the chief of the pass defenders until the chief dies or runs away.

(2)When this game is going on, the life measurement meter under the leading role supports the power of his action. Whenever the meter goes to "0", the "life" of the leading role comes to an end. But the pills left by the dead enemies can replenish this life measurement meter.

(3)Attack with amassed power :

Press Button B and hold it until the body of the leading role begins to flash. As soon as Button B is released from the pressure, the leading role shoots a large-size energy cannon whose power is much stronger than any other arms. But after the leading role shoots this cannon, he will fail to attack for a while.

(4)Examination of the terrain :

While avoiding the trap, the leading role may use the "Up" and "Down" buttons to control the up-and-down movement of the picture.

1. DESCRIPTION OF TREASURES

Pills are the only treasures in this game, which restore "life". Each pill can restore as much life as 4 checkers of the life measurement meter. Since not each enemy has such pills, the leading role has to rely on the skill of dodging in addition to pills, if he wants to beat down chief of the defender.
